Nathan Cooper was the head of household and his wife was Olive Cooper. They had two sons Mercator and Gilbert. They also had a daughter Margaret, but her birthdate is unknown, so we are not certain if she is counted on here or not. Gad and Esther Williams were former slaves of the Coopers who had earned their freedom in 1803. However, their daughters Violet and Rachel remained slaves at this time. Their other daughter Millicent was born in 1801 and was an indentured servant to the Coopers having been born after the passing of the Act for the Gradual Emancipation of Slaves in the State of New York in 1799. But their son Prince was fully a freeman as he was born to free parents in 1806. The last slave is unknown.

Free Colored Females of 45 and upwards: 1

• Esther Cooper, 49

After the death of Nathan Cooper, Gad Williams became the head of his own household. It is unknown if they were still living on or near the Cooper property or somewhere else at this time. It is important to note that Gad's last name is listed here as Cooper. Violet gave birth to Pyrrhus in 1814 and her whereabouts at this time are unknown, however she did eventually move out of Southampton and may have been gone at this point. It is also curious that there are two girls under the age of 14 living in the home as their other daughters would have been older by this time unless Gad and Esther had more children.

Head of Household: Olive Cooper

• Olive Cooper (Howell), age unknown

Number of persons engaged in Agriculture: 1

With the death of Nathan Cooper on December 4, 1817 Olive became the head of the household in 1820. As you can see at this point none of the Williams family is listed as living here still. However with Gad being listed just before Olive, perhaps they were still on the property or at the very least neighbors but for the purposes of this census, recorded as their own household.

Pyrrhus Concer, 16

Charles Pelletreau inherited his father's home on South Main Street. We believe the other "free white male of 30 and under 40" was his younger brother Edwin but are not 100% sure. The two females in the home are not known, but Charles and Edwin never got married. But we do see a "free colored male of 10 and under 24" who we believe to be Pyrrhus Concer. This is based partly on the oral history that Pyrrhus ended up being sold to the Pelletreau family and the fact that this is the only individual who meets the general criteria to be Pyrrhus as provided by the census records at the time.

Like with the 1820 census there are some mystery girls living in Gad's household and sadly it is impossible right now to tell who they are. They could be children of Gad's, perhaps Prince's wife and child or someone else. But there is just not enough info to tell. Unlike the 1820 record, there is also the matter of the two young boys who, at this time, are also unknown.

1840 Federal Census Record for Charles Pelletreau

Head of Household: Charles Pelletreau

Free White Males 40 and under 50: 1

• Charles Pelletreau, 49

Free White Females 20 and under 30: 1

Unknown

Free Colored Male 10 and under 24: 1

Unknown

Number of persons working in Agriculture: 2

Being that Pyrrhus grew up on Charles Pelletreau's property and working on his farm seeing a "freed colored male 10 and under 24" and 2 people working in agriculture its an easy guess to think Pyrrhus may still be here. However, with Pyrrhus at this time beginning his whaling career he would no longer be listed as working in agriculture. He was also 26 at the time, so too old to be the young man listed here.

• Esther Williams, 69

Number of persons working in Agriculture: 1

Number of persons working in Navigation of the Ocean: 1

Neighboring Prince is his father Gad which can be deciphered by them being directly next to each other on the census record. Interestingly, we can infer that Pyrrhus was living here as he fits the description as being a "free colored male" between the ages of 24 and 35 at the time who was engaged in the business of "navigation of the ocean" as a whaler. One point of confusion lies in when exactly Pyrrhus began living with his wife who shares a first name with his aunt Rachel who both fit the description of a "free colored female" between the ages of 24 and 35 at the time.

In "Born Free" the author posits that Pyrrhus was living with his father in 1840 due to there being a "free colored male of 10 and under 24 years of age" in his home and also one person listed as "working in the navigation of canals, lakes, rivers". However, Pyrrhus was 26 at the time and was working as a whaler at this time and would not have his ferry boat business until much later in life. It is understandable to think that mistakes were made when the census data was collected, and these two clues fit so close to Pyrrhus' story. But when looking at the census record of Pyrrhus' maternal grandfather Gad Cooper, it is clear that is more likely that Pyrrhus was living there in 1840.

1860 Federal Census Record for Charles Pelletreau

Head of Household: Charles Pelletreau

Name	Age	Sex	Color (white, black or mulatto)	Profession
Charles Pelletreau	67	М	W	Farmer
Emeline Rhodes	44	F	W
Hannah Rhodes	9	F	W
William S. Pelletreau	19	М	W

Again, Charles' home has a new group of people living in it. Emeline and Hannah Rhodes who are not related to Charles in any way that we can discern are living in the home as well as William who is Charles' nephew. William would go on to later inherit the home and become the Southampton Town historian and is responsible for helping to preserve huge amounts of history from this era.

1860 Federal Census Record for Pyrrhus Concer

Head of Household: Pyrrhus Concer

Name	Age	Sex	Color (white, black or mulatto)	Profession
Pyrrhus Concer	46	М	В	Fisherman
Rachel Concer	54	F	В
Jas (James Concer)	12	М	В

By 1860 Pyrrhus' household had shrunken slightly with his grandmother Esther passing away. Interestingly his son's name is listed as "Jas" instead of his full name and Pyrrhus' profession is listed as "Fisherman". By this time Pyrrhus had most likely retired from whaling and had already participated in the gold rush and settled into less adventurous lifestyle.

1870 Federal Census Record for Pyrrhus Concer

Head of Household: Pyrrhus Concer

Name	Age	Sex	Color (white, black or mulatto)	Profession
Pyrrhus Concer	56	М	В	Fishing
Rachel Concer	60	F	В	Keeping House

Pyrrhus and Rachel unfortunately lost their son James at an early age and at some point, had another son who was never counted on census records but also died quite young. Also noted here Rachel's age seems to change. Not sure if it was an error here or fixing a previous error in the recording of her age.

Received July 22, 1830.

1880 Federal Census Record for Pyrrhus Concer

Head of Household: Pyrrhus Concer

Name	Age	Sex	Color (white, black or mulatto)	Profession
Pyrrhus Concer	66	М	В	Sailor
Rachel Concer	70	F	В	Keeping House

Again, we see Rachel's age not seeming to match up earlier records and we also see a change in Pyrrhus' profession. It is unclear when exactly Pyrrhus started his ferry business but with the change in his profession here to "sailor" it may have been around this time roughly.
